A Message from the President of the Board

Hello Chamber family,

Fall is here! Another change of season, another change in direction. Speaking of direction, we are in the process of electing new board members. Please complete the ballot in this newsletter for your selection. Once completed either fax to 814-827-2914, drop it off at the Chamber office at 202 West Central Avenue Titusville, or simply email to titusvillepachamber@gmail.com

We at the Chamber are busy wrapping up our 2020 Golf Tee-Off at the Mt. Hope Golf Course. We thank our very generous sponsors, golfers, donors, and volunteers for all they have contributed to the success of this year's golf outing.

Not resting on our laurels, our eyes are now set for the Home For The Holidays. Once again, we will have our Wreath Sale and the Christmas Trees sale for the Light Up at Schiede Park. Unfortunately, due to the Covid-19, we will not be having the Pop-Up Shops and horse carriage rides this year.

Maloy Shrout

AND THE WINNER IS.....

Our 2020 Golf Tee-Off Winners are:

1st place winner is Morton-Moore

2nd place winner is Oil Creek Plastics

3rd place is Community Connect

TALES OF THE TRAIL

The “Tales of the Trails” History Walk and Greenways Festivities were held this month in Titusville to celebrate PA Trails Month. Hosted by Titusville Area Trails Association and its parent organization, Titusville Renaissance, Inc., several entities partnered to showcase trail development projects and volunteers in the region.

The program began with the “Tales of the Trails”, a 1-mile guided History Walk led by Benson Memorial Library Historian Megin Sewak to introduce six new interpretive panels installed on the Queen City Trail. The panels were created through a partnership between the City of Titusville and the Oil Region Alliance. At the conclusion of the guided walk, Titusville Mayor Dennis Peden and ORA President/CEO John Phillips officially dedicated the panels with a ribbon-cutting at the Black Bridge Trailhead, where the trail intersects S. Martin St.

At this trailhead, the Council on Greenways & Trails then presented their annual Greenways Awards:

William Moore, Ph.D received the Volunteer of the Year award; recognizing his extensive contributions to the development of the Rail 66 Country Trail in Clarion County.

Clarion University of PA & Clarion University Foundation were awarded the Partner of the Year award; highlighting the development of the Clarion River Loop Trail, linking University Suites with the Clarion River.

Titusville Community Development Agencies were presented the Neighbor of the Year award for the development of trail amenities along the Queen City Trail, including the mural on the Black Bridge, which provided the dramatic backdrop for the day's festivities.

Painted by Oil City native, Berry Breene, the final phase of the program included a dedication of the mural by TCDA Director Laurie Baker.

Funding for this event was provide in part by a grant from DCNR and administered by the PA Environmental Council, with matching funds generously provided by the partner agencies.

OIL REGION ALLIANCE SEEKS PUBLIC FEEDBACK VIA SURVEY ON NATIONAL HERITAGE AREA FOR STRATEGIC PLAN

OIL CITY, PA—The Oil Region Alliance (ORA) is conducting an online survey now through October 21 to get the public’s opinion on the Oil Region National Heritage Area (ORNHA), which will inform a Strategic Plan to guide the region’s management.

The ORNHA, which consists of all of Venango County and the City of Titusville, Hydetown Borough and Oil Creek Township in Crawford County, is managed by the ORA. The ORA focuses on natural and cultural preservation, historic interpretation and education, tourism, and economic development.

Through the consultant firm of The Walker Collaborative, the ORA is developing a Strategic Plan that will guide the focus and activities of the ORA moving forward. Members of the firm have already visited the region, met with stakeholders, and held two virtual public meetings in early September.

“The updated plan will factor in accomplishments of earlier recommended projects, changing economic factors, feasibility considerations, and other relevant issues,” said Jenn Burden, ORA Heritage Program Manager. “Public input for the Strategic Plan is needed to make the report successful.”

Now anyone can take the survey and provide feedback on topics including the natural environment, outdoor recreation and trails, how history is interpreted, development of historic buildings, tourism features such as shops, restaurants and lodging, and the best asset of the ORNHA.

Click on “take the survey here” under the “Be Part of the Process” heading on the ORA’s homepage at OilRegion.org or type <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/S6ZKBG8> into a browser. It only takes about 10 minutes to complete and is anonymous. Feel free to share the link with others. The more responses, the better.

The information collected through the survey will be consolidated by the consultants and reviewed during the next round of public meetings in late October.

Due to COVID-19, we have a scaled down celebration for Home for the Holidays. No Pop-Up Shops nor carriage rides will be offered this year.
